Archival description area

Administrative history	As a class assignment for a MCI grade eleven General Course, the students researched and wrote a history of Minnedosa and surrounding communities which was then dedicated to their teacher Mrs. Averill. Mrs. Averill began her teaching career in 1940 at Marney school. After 1950 Mrs. Averill taught high school at MCI.
Scope & content	The topics within this book cover student autobiographies, local government, settlers, travel, railroad, industries, hospitals, sports, wars, social life, religion, and surrounding community histories. 1964 was the first year the General Course was introduced at MCI.
Custodial history	This copy was donated by Ken & Karen Parenteau in 2012 to the Minnedosa Regional Archives. Other custodial history is unavailable.
Source of title	Title based on the contents of the fonds.
